

MILITARY TRAINING AND EXPERIENCE EVALUATIONS

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Department of Defense (DoD) Voluntary Education (VoEd) Program, through the Defense Activity for Non-Traditional Education Support (DANTES), partners with the American Council on Education (ACE) to translate military learning experiences into comparable civilian postsecondary college credit. ACE evaluates military training, education and job experience to provide recommended credits on the Joint Services Transcript (JST).

BENEFITS TO SERVICE MEMBERS:

-  Provides a head start: Members begin college with credit from their military experience
-  Saves time: Fewer courses are needed to complete degree requirements
-  Saves money: Fewer required courses equals lower expenses for tuition, books and fees
-  Helps prepare: Members may be eligible for waived prerequisites for advanced courses
-  Provides school options: More than 2,300 colleges and universities accept ACE credit recommendations listed on the JST

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

All enlisted, officers, warrant officers and veterans from active, National Guard and Reserve components in the Army, Marine Corps, Navy and U.S. Coast Guard are eligible.

Air Force personnel should contact CCAF to receive service transcripts, www.airuniversity.af.edu/Barnes/CCAF/Display/Article/803247/community-college-of-the-air-force-transcripts/

Air Force personnel who attended joint training offered by another Service should contact JST Operations to have a JST created. Email: jst@doded.mil
